

BOARD OF DIRECTORS PROSPECTUS

(for Board term of service January 1 2023- December 2025)

Dear Friend of The Arc,

On behalf of the Board of Directors I thank you for your interest in The Arc of Adams County (The Arc).

This prospectus outlines current priorities for board candidates and the roles and responsibilities of board members. It also includes an overview of The Arc's purpose and tenets, as expressed through our mission, core values and vision statements. After reading through this prospectus, you should have a good understanding about what is involved in serving on The Arc's Board.

We accept both self- nominations and third-party nominations (nominating someone other than yourself) for Board member positions. If you know someone, personally or professionally, who meets our requirements, we encourage you to nominate them.

Please look through this document with care. Though ours is a local chapter, this is an extraordinary opportunity for individuals passionate about The Arc's mission, and excited about the opportunity to be a part of a civil rights organization. Board members come from all walks of life, and need not have a family member or friend with I/DD. The best Boards are diverse, with individuals who come from a variety of disciplines. Their personal and career accomplishments allow them to be excellent board members, able to attract other well-qualified, high performing Board members.

Again, thank you for your commitment to The Arc. We look forward to reviewing your nomination!

Sincerely,

Lynnelle Zackroff
Vice President, Board of Directors

The Arc of Adams County

Statement of Board Nominating Priorities

Annually, the Board of Directors reviews the current composition of the board, considers future needs and sets priorities for the current nominating cycle. While other individuals may be considered for nomination, outreach will be conducted to identify candidates and preference will be given in this cycle to candidates that fit the following Nominating Priorities.

Priority Factors:

After reviewing The Arc's Strategic Plan and current Board composition, we are particularly interested in adding the following to our Board:

Individuals with the knowledge in, connections to, or experience with:

- Finance/Non Profit fiscal management
- Diversity, Equity and Inclusion strengths
- Parent of younger school age child
- Legal experience
- Sibling of a person with and Intellectual Developmental Disability (IDD)
- Person with IDD

Individuals who can bring the perspectives of minority groups are especially encouraged to apply.

Though the Board has expressed these priorities, all interested individuals who have a passion for The Arc's mission are encouraged to submit a nomination form.

"After many years of being a board member for Arc Adams Co I continue to be impressed by the advocacy and support that the staff offers to people with intellectual developmental disabilities and their families. The organization's mission to promote full inclusion and protect the rights of individuals with IDD is carried out daily. I am proud to be part of such an outstanding agency."

-Lynnelle Zackroff, Board Vice President

About Serving on The Arc's Board of Directors

The Arc of Adams County is seeking candidates that believe in and will actively support the mission, and vision of The Arc of Adams County. This information is provided below, to assist individuals in understanding what is involved in Board service.

The Arc of Adams County's Mission Statement

Since 1962 the mission of The Arc of Adams County is to protect, preserve and promote the human and civil rights of people with intellectual and developmental disabilities and actively support their full inclusion and participation in the community throughout their lifetimes.

The Arc of Adams County's Vision Statement

A world where all people with disabilities belong, have equal rights, make their own choices and live their best lives.

Along with the Mission and Vision of the Arc of Adams County, we adhere to the Core Values of the Arc of the United States (www.thearc.org)

Our Core Values

Human Dignity

People with IDD have human dignity. The lives of people with IDD have value.

Personhood

People with IDD have varying strengths, abilities, and interests. Each person is unique.

Choice

People with IDD can make decisions about their lives. People with IDD should be supported to do so as requested or needed.

Rights

People with IDD have human and civil rights, which must be protected.

Community

People with IDD are part of and contribute to the fabric of society. Everyone benefits when people with IDD are present and participate.

Support

People with IDD have differing support needs. Society must support people with IDD to achieve their full potential. Society should also help families who provide support for loved ones with IDD.

Equity

Society must remove barriers and correct injustices that limit opportunities for people with IDD. Extra action is needed to help people with IDD and their families, who face other forms of bias or discrimination.

Diversity

Human diversity is beautiful and powerful. We celebrate, honor, and seek to understand the differences in our identities and life experiences.
